

DISCOVER THE BEST-KEPT SECRET IN BARRON AND RUSK COUNTIES: THE ICE AGE NATIONAL SCENIC TRAIL

Thursday, April 30
Rice Lake Public Library
2 East Marshall Street (Rice Lake)
1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.—Light refreshments provided

Thursday, April 30
The Farmhouse Restaurant and Bar
W14370 West Railway Avenue (Weyerhaeuser)
6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.— BYOW and order off
the menu!

Register for FREE!

Friday, May 1
Thomas St. Angelo Public Library
1305 Second Avenue (Cumberland)
12:00 p.m.- 1:30 p.m.—Lunch included!

Join the Blue Hills and Superior Lobe chapters of the Ice Age Trail Alliance!

You'll learn the story behind Wisconsin's 1,200-mile footpath that travels through Barron and Rusk counties. It highlights scenic landscape gems left by the glacier —moraines, kettle lakes, tunnel channels, and more!

Come for the Curiosity, Stay for the Fun

- Get the Scoop: Discover nearby Trail segments
- Talk Trail
- Gear Up: Grab exclusive Trail merch
- Get Involved
- Enter to Win a Door Prize

Questions? Email: Info@iceagetrail.org.

